

Product Sales Manager

Shingles & Shakes

We are constantly expanding our reputation for quality and service and are looking for a sales professional to develop and grow our market share in the above key target areas. It is expected that the successful applicant will typically spend 4 days a week visiting architects, specifiers and customers nationally and one day a week at head office.

To be successful you will require a sound knowledge of the roofing market and have the ability to use that knowledge to produce market reports and identify potential related business opportunities for John Brash.

Your ability to interpret technical drawings will have underpinned a demonstrable track record in sales and technical support to key customers and specifiers. Persuasive and highly motivated you will have excellent verbal and written communication skills and exhibit a high degree of drive and initiative in the pursuit of your targets.

You will need basic skills in Microsoft Access, Excel and preferably Word and may have a background or previous training in architecture or technical drawing.

We are looking for someone who is bright, enthusiastic and has a positive 'can do' attitude.

If you feel you meet the above criteria, and you would like to see the job specification please visit www.johnbrash.co.uk or contact us:
